On Thursday, April 23, 2009, we will have an orientation for all incoming kindergartners and their families. At this orientation you will be able to meet the kindergarten teachers, discuss the curriculum, review policies and receive information that will help parents and children feel more comfortable about school. Please bring your child and join us for this brief but informative orientation from 6:30-7:30 p.m. To help make it a special event for your kindergartners-to-be, please leave siblings at home.
